

José Antonio Bassan

Independent Consultant

Citizenship: Argentinian and Italian

Profession	Geologist
Education	Bachelor of Science (Licentiate) in Geology, Universidad Nacional de La Pampa, Argentina. 1990-1996 Diploma in Applied Geostatistics Universidad de Chile. Mining Engineering Department. 2004 Master in Business Administration, (Fundación del Tucumán-Universidad del Norte Santo Tomás de Aquino-Universidad Católica de Valparaíso, Chile), 2003-2005 Master of Science in Mineral Economics. Curtin University of Technology. Perth, Australia. 2006-2009
Professional Registration	AusIMM Member FAusIMM (CP) # 227922. CIM Membership # 151726. SEG Fellow # 919300

Specialization	Economic geology, applied geostatistics, resource/reserve estimation, geological modeling, mineral resource exploration/assessment.
-----------------------	---

Expertise	Mr. José Bassan has over 27 years' experience in the mining industry. From 1997 to 2008, Mr. Bassan worked for several exploration and production mining companies in Argentina, Chile, Peru, Mexico, USA, China, Philippines, Australia and Finland as an exploration geologist, grade control geologist and resource/reserve geologist. Since late 2008 until present, Mr. Bassan has worked as an independent consultant in the mining industry developing projects of base and precious metals, lithium deposits and industrial minerals. Key experience comprises project generation, project assessment, geologic mapping, drill program design, development and supervision, QA/QC programs, database analysis geologic modeling and resource/reserve estimation. Mr. Bassan is an author of more than six international publications with other high-reputation resource/reserve professionals. He has designed and taught courses on resource/reserve estimation at the graduate level and advanced mining engineering students at the Universidad Nacional de San Luis, Argentina. Jury Doctoral Thesis of Geology. University of Buenos Aires; Exact and Natural Sciences. UBA Buenos Aires, Argentina
------------------	---